2016 Annual Catholic Appeal Begins

Our 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal is about to begin. You should soon be receiving a letter and a pledge envelope from the diocese. Lent is a good time to participate in our Annual Catholic Appeal. Your sacrificial gift allows others to experience Mercy which is Faith working through Love.

Liturgical Reflection ... JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

This second week of Lent the Local Church observes the Corporal Work of Mercy to shelter the homeless. The media bombards us with information on the flight of immigrants seeking a homeland. The Lord would have us welcome the stranger in our midst. Catholic Relief Services aids orphans, refugees, and victims of natural disasters and wars. Do you know someone from the parish or wider community who needs some home repairs or yard work? Housing is a primary concern for many families; some of them live right around us. Catholic Charities ministers to the homeless. Being a follower of Christ means we may have to leave our comfort zone and become involved in the community. God's mercy shines through our involvement. 2016 Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, Hollidaysburg, PA
