MEMORIALS & DONATIONS:

Thank you to all of our benefactors and God bless your generosity to and support of our school.

WITH GRATITUDE TO OUR FACULTY AND STAFF:

As Principal at Saint John School, my days are filled with gratitude. Gratitude for the beautiful smiles of our students. Gratitude for the families who allow us to care for, nurture, and teach their children. And, gratitude for our amazing and dedicated faculty and staff. Their choice to share their gifts with our school is one I never take for granted. Their commitment, compassion, and love for our students and our school are what make us truly special.

I pray that all members of our school community experience rest, renewal, and joy this summer, and that they know how very deeply they are appreciated and loved.

In Christ,

Kristina Tice, Principal

VOCATION CORNER 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God forms a special people and sends His disciples to serve those who are lost or suffering. We are invited to recognize our inherent value, trust in His grace, and become Christ's healing presence in the world.

Jesus told His disciples, "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give". We are to share God's compassionate love generously.

How is God calling me to use my unique gifts to bring healing and invitation to those around me?

If you sense an invitation to consider the priesthood or religious life, talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at email: vocations@dioceseaj.org.
